The Colonel Says:

It is claimed, sub, that marital trouble will cease entirely when a separation is adopted which permits a man to keep his wife but gives him an absolute divorce from her relatives. Be that as it may, 'tis true that happiness depends greatly on appreciating virtue to such an extent as to shut out all distasteful influences. With me, sub, no arguments—no blandishments can win me from my favorite—

SAO LETS.

A good, honest and fearless judge like Charles S. Cutting, judge of the probate court, will not experience much difficulty in being reelected.

Homer E. Tinsman, the popular and well known lawyer and former alderman, would serve the people well on the bench.

Matt Aller, the popular twenty-sixth ward democrat, is being backed by his big army of friends for the legislature in the sixth district.

The election of Thomas Taylor, Jr., as judge of the superior court will place on that bench an able, brilliant and honest judge.

Joseph F. Haas' good record as county clerk coupled with his widespread popularity, makes his candidacy for re-election a tower of strength to the whole Republican county ticket.

Alderman Thomas F. Scully is one of the most popular public officials Chicago has ever had and his election to the Municipal Court bench by a big plurality is predicted on all sides.

Benjamin M. Mitchell is a sure winner for the Democratic nomination for the legislature in the twenty-first district. He has the rank and file of the party with him to a man.

William H. Weber's able and hard-working record as secretary of the Republican County Central Committee has made him deservedly popular with every Republican in the county.

Edward Osgood Brown was one of the best Judges of the Circuit Court the people of Cook County ever had and his nomination by the Democrats for the vacancy on that bench will be an honor he has truly deserved.

The nomination of Matt Aller for the legislature by the Democrats of the sixth district will prove a popular one.

Edgar A. Rossiter is the best county surveyor Cook county ever had. He is a hard-working, conscientious official and knows his business from start to finish.

The Democrats chose a deservedly well liked man when they slated former City Attorney John E. Owens for County Judge.

Honest Peter Bartsen deserves your vote for president of the county board.
